Overnight stay in HOTEL

Day 4 >>> TOKYO - NAGOYA

****Your luggage will be transported separately to Takayama by courier. Please remember to pack hand luggage for two nights in Nagoya****

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full day without assistance. Depart for Nagoya by Shinkansen train (in 2nd class, reserved seats) approx. 1.5 hours.

We recommend a visit to Nagoya Castle, an iconic symbol of the city, famous for its two golden shachihoko (mythological animal of Japanese folklore) statues adorning the roof of its imposing keep. Of relevant particularity, there is the SCMAGLEV Museum and Railway Park, owned by the railway company JR, where many examples of Shinkansen trains and various simulators are on display. From a gastronomic point of view, Nagoya is renowned for its delicious grilled eel (unagi), a must-try dish.

Overnight stay in HOTEL

Day 5 >>> NAGOYA

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full day free at leisure. Suggestions for exploring different locations: the Kiso Valley, famous for its picturesque villages of Tsumago and Magome connected by the ancient route Nakasendo, easily reached by JR express train and local bus with at least 1.5-hour travel time. Another fascinating destination is Mie prefecture, famous for the Shinto Shrine of Ise Jingu, a sacred place ideal for a deep immersion in mythology and ancient Japanese culture. This place can be reached by JR express train in about 1.5 hours.

Overnight stay in HOTEL

Day 6 >>> NAGOYA - TAKAYAMA

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full day without assistance. Depart for Takayama by JR express train (in 2nd class, reserved seats) approx. 2 hours.

In Takayama we recommend visiting the Sanmachi-suji district, the heart of the old town, strolling among sake factories and quaint houses converted into craft stores. Traditional dinner at the ryokan included.

Overnight stay in RYOKAN

MAIN FEATURES OF THE TOUR

This tour offers the opportunity to stay overnight in Nagoya, a city that not only boasts a magnificent Castle but is also strategically located for exploring two fascinating areas of Japan: the Kiso Valley and Mie Prefecture.
